

Clark County Law Library

Self-Help Books

Self-Help books are written for people who are not attorneys and choose to represent themselves in court, often referred to as “Self-Represented”, “Pro Per”, or “Pro Se” litigants. Material found in the law library’s Self-Help collection can assist the Pro Se or Pro Per litigant in their legal research. Some commonly used titles from this collection are listed below:

General Legal Information

101 Law Forms for Personal Use

Everybody's Guide to Small Claims Court

Represent Yourself in Court: How To Prepare & Try a Winning Case

The Criminal Law Handbook: Know Your Rights, Survive the System

Landlord/Tenant and Home Ownership

Every Dog’s Legal Guide: A Must-Have Book for Your Owner

Every Landlord's Legal Guide

Every Tenant's Legal Guide

Lease & Rental Agreements

Neighbor Law: Fences, Trees, Boundaries & Noise

Employment

Dealing with Problem Employees: A Legal Guide

Sexual Harassment on the Job: What It Is & How to Stop It

Your Rights in the Workplace: An Employee’s Guide to Fair Treatment

Personal Finance

Chapter 13 Bankruptcy: Repay Your Debts

Credit Repair

Estate Planning Basics

Long-Term Care: How To Plan and Pay For It

Money Troubles: Legal Strategies to Cope With Your Debts

Nolo's Guide to Social Security Disability: Getting & Keeping Your Benefits

The Executor's Guide: Settling a Loved One's Estate or Trust

Family

Building a Parenting Agreement that Works: Child Custody Agreements Step by Step

Divorce & Money: How to Make the Best Financial Decisions During Divorce

Living Together: A Legal Guide for Unmarried Couples

Prenuptial Agreements: How to Write A Fair & Lasting Contract

Business

Home Business Tax Deductions: Keep What You Earn

How to Create A Noncompete Agreement

How to Write A Business Plan

Legal Guide for Starting & Running a Small Business

Additional self-help titles may be found by calling the library at 702-455-4696 or by searching our catalog at www.ClarkCountyNV.Gov/LawLibrary.